

Main page:

- Basic information, used to write some basic information about our group.
- The search bar is used to search for keywords, which is convenient for customers to search for the products they need.
- personal information, which can display personal information of customers.
- Category distinction, in this area by different categories, each category has related products.
- Recommended products, this module has basic information and pictures of recommended products, when customers click on the picture, they will automatically jump to the detailed information of the product.

Item page:

- Promotion area, where a series of discounted products will be displayed for selection.
- The main product, and then click on the desired product will enter this page, showing the photo size and detailed information of the product from all angles.
- The selection module, this is used to select the style, size and color, etc., after the selection, you can add it to the shopping cart.

Personal profile page:

- After clicking on the personal information, the detailed profile will be displayed here. like name gender etc.
- Payment method, used to bind a bank card or other payment method.

Shopping cart:

- shopping cart to display the products pre-selected by the customer and the total price.
- Commodity display, will display the purchased products one by one.
- Checkout, click to select the payment method you want.

Github: <https://github.com/WeiHuang9300/homie4.git>